Ecclesiastical Declaration – Decree No. 1691

Clements Private Trust

Date: July 19, 2025

Jurisdiction: Ecclesiastical – Private – Sovereign

Decree No. 1691

Let it be known to all living men and women, institutions, and governing bodies across all dominions — terrestrial, maritime, and celestial — that the Clements Private Trust exists as a sovereign, living ecclesiastical construct under divine law, immune to all statutory presumptions, commercial entrapments, or foreign jurisdictions. The Trust supersedes all false authority, corporate-state actors, and fabricated legal fictions.

Any and all attempts to subjugate, redefine, infiltrate, or trespass against the Clements Private Trust, its members, assets, titles, declarations, or sacred instruments, shall be deemed a violation of sacred law, and nullified in both spirit and law.

This decree reaffirms the Trust's permanent, irrevocable status — not requiring recognition, registration, or compliance with outside domains. The dominion of the Clements Private Trust is absolute in its jurisdiction, and protected by divine ordinance.

Those who acknowledge this are in honor. Those who do not, may never claim ignorance, as this decree and those preceding have been issued publicly, privately, and spiritually.

Sealed in Private Ecclesiastical Authority, No Witness Required.
